MORGAN REACHES NAPLES TODAY

American Financier Perceptibly Enfeebled by His Late Illness.

TOOK TRAIN FOR ROME

Urged to Continue Voyage to New York, But Insists on Visiting Certain European Capitals.

Nayles, March 13.—J. P. Morgan, perceptiibiity enfeebled by his latest illness arrived at Naples today abroad the White Star Liner Adriatic, and despite strenuous protests of his relatives, friends, physicians and nurses, boarded a special train for Rome.

Herbert Satterlee, son-in-law of Morgan urged the financier to continue the voyage to New York aboard the Adriatic, but he insisted on going to Rome, and may perhaps visit other cities of Europe before returning home.

Further than Rome, the Morgan itinerary was not known when the party left Naples today.

In Rome, it was learned from members of the party, Morgan hopes to arrange an audience with King Victor Emanuel. He will also try to see Kaiser Wilhelm in Berlin and King George in London before returning to America.

The financier also will arrange to meet the leading santiquarians and Egyptologists of Europe, some of whom are his most valued personal friends.

A member of the Morgan party said, on landing, that Morgan, because of his recent illness and advancing years, realized that in all probability he would never again visit the continent, and so, in spite o fthe protests of his relatives and physicians had determined on a farewell leave-taking of the monarchs and solons, who have been his friends.

"His physicians assure us that Mr. Morgan will recover completely after a few weeks of absolute rest in Rome," said his son-in-law, Herbert Satterlee.

LARGE CROWD AT SALE

The great crowd that attended the opening of the closing outsale of E. Goldsmith shows what advertising can accomplish; Long before the doors were opened at nine o'clock this morning acrowd was lined up at the front door and far out into the street, and by 9 o'clock there were several hundred people waitin gto get in.

In a short time the crowd became so great that the front door had to be closed at intervals to enable the clerks to wait on the people inside.

E. W. Skinner, manager of the American Special Sale and Salvage Company, in charge of the sale, estimates that there were over 4,000 people at the store during the first three hours of the sale this morning.

Forty two clerks are employed, sixteen of them women.

Mr. Goldsmith sent out for hot coffee and sandwiches at noon as the clerks had no time to go out for dinner.

The store will be kept open at nights until 9 o'clock if necessary to accomodate the buyers.

TO DECORATE BANK.

Workmen today commenced the erection of the scaffolding in the interior of the Citizens' National Bank, so that art decorators can begin their work of decorating the ceiling and walls of the interior of the bank building.

Carroll Pierce, Vice President of the Citizens' Bank, stated that the Du Praws, the well-known artistic decorators of Baltimore, are to do the decorative work. The general scheme is to color the walls to harmonize with the gold and colored tints of the ceiling which will make the Citizens' National Bank one of the finest decorated bank buildings in the State of Virginia.

Other imporvements have been made at the bank. The private desk of Mr. Pierce now has a railing about it with access to the private office in the rear, while another desk is to be placed within the railing in the lobby of the bank, facilitating the handling of business with customers.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

President Wilson's proclamation assembling the Sixty-third Congress in special session will fix April 7 as the date and suggest that the revision of the tariff should be the only subject given consideration. These facts became known yesterday following a conference between President Wilson and Representative Oscar W. Underwood, the Democratic leader of the House. It was originally the intention of President Wilson to call Congress together on or about April 1.

Finding her husband with a woman who gave her name as Mrs. L. A. Howell in a flat in Memphis, Tenn., last night, Mrs. August Schieber opened fire upon them with a pistol. Schieber, who is president of a lumber company was so badly wounded that he died soon after. The woman was wounded in the right arm. Mrs. Schieber was arrested at her home shortly after the shooting. Schieber, who was reputed to be wealthy, went to Memphis several years ago from Mount Vernon, Ind. He was about 35 years of age. Mrs. Howell is said to have fomerly lived in Vincennes, Ind.

A despairing cry of "I can hold out only a week longer," was sent in cipher by wireless yesterday from Shukri Pasha, the Turkish commander of Adrianople, to his superior officer in Constantinople. Shukri, who has held out for many months against the hundreds of siege guns of the Bulgarians and Servians, is said to have informed the Porte in his message that Adrianople is practically at the end of its supplies of food and ammunition, while there is much sickness, especially scurvy and intestinal disorders, which are ravaging the ranks of the defenders.

While spectators who crowded a theatre in the northeastern section of Philadelphia sat in wonder at the sudden stopping of a moving picture being displayed on the screen yesterday, an investigation by attaches of the house resulted in the discoverey that operator had ben electrocuted. His body was found stretched across an electric switchboard in the little room in which the machine was located. The dead man, Frederick Schmidstetter, 43 years of age, was an experienced operator and the manner in which he came into contact with the live wire is a mystery.

M. O. Huglund, aged 45 years, and Nels Larsen, 40, were found dead sitting in an automobile in their automobile repair shop at Minneapolis yesterday. Gas fumes from the engine are believed to have caused their deaths last night.

Two militant suffragette meetings last night, one at Edenbridge Kent, and the other at Radlett, Hertfordshire, England, were broken up by opponents of the cause. At Edenbridge, the wall behind the platform was bespatterl by a fusilade of eggs. The platform was stormed and the police were called out to restore order. At Radlett, the din of the shouting, singing, and ringing of bells was maintained for nearly an hour, and hardly a word of the speeches could be heard.

Governor Cole L. Blease, of South Carolina, has been advised by Columbia's city council that the fines of $3.75 and $15.75 paid by his negro chauffeur in recorder's court on charges of exceeding the speed limit will not be returned, although the governor has issued full pardons for the chauffeur, and ordered the fines remitted. The chief of police refuses to comply with the order until the city attorney made a ruling on the governor's authority to take this action. The city attorney reported to the city council that in his opinion the pardons are not valid or binding, and the council has sent the opinion to the governor.

Mrs. Louise Jeffrys and Natalie Jeffryes, the wife and daughter of Dr. Wyman Jeffreys, a Scotchman, who served some time as an army surgeon in the American civil war, committed suicide Tuesday in a pond near Godalming, Surrey. Dr. Jeffreys, when he identified the bodies, said he served a long time in the United States army, and fought in three wars. He declared that his wife suffered from hallucinations, and that his daughter was overwrought by constant attendance on her.

VIRGINIAN GETS ONE OF THE PLUMS

J. K. Williams is Appointed Assistant Secretary of Treasury.

IS RICHMOND BANKER.

Selection of Williams Follows Visit Today of Senators Martin and Swanson to White House.

Washington, March 13.—John Skelton Williams, of Virginia was today appointed assistant secretary of the treasury by President Wilson. The formal announcement of his appointment was given out by the President shortly following a visit today by Senators Martin and Swanson of Virginia.

The new assistant secretary of the treasury is a member of the banking house of Williams' Sons, of Richmond, Virginia, an old established organization. He created the Seaboard Air Line Railroad system and was for a long time its president.

There are three assistant secretaries of the Treasury, and it was assumed that Williams would become first assistant, vice Robert O. Bailey.

It was generally understood thatt another Virginian, Robert W. Wooley, former newspaperman, investigator for the Stanley steel committee, and one of the authors of the Democratic campaign text books, would also be appointed to a post equal in rank to an assistant secretaryship.

Mr. Wooley is a well known newspaper and magazine writer of Washington. He was employed at the Democratic headquarters in New York during the last campaign, and was especially prominent in preparing the campaign text-book. He is about 40 years of age, married Miss Trenholm, of South Carolina, and lives in Fairfax county, Virginia. Mr. Wooley was recently a candidate for secretary of the Senate, but withdrew from the race. He is a native of Kentucky and is connected with many of the best known families of the State.

Neither Martin nor Swanson would make any comment on their visit or discuss the reported "split" in Virginia patronage, and particularly whether Thomas Nelson Page or Joseph E. Willard should be named for diplomatic posts.

That Senators Martin and Swanson of Virginia have a definite understanding that Robert W. Wooley will be appointed assistant secretary of the treasury was reported at the White House today, following the Virginian's conference with President Wilson. Neither Senator would discuss the breach in the party in the Old Dominion state over patronage, and particularly over the factional fight to have Joseph E. Willard named as ambassador as against Thomas Nelson Page, the author.

President Wilson this afternoon nominated:

Edwin F. Sweet, of Grand Rapids, Mich., to be assistant secretary of comerce.

Franklin D Roosevelt of New York, to be assistant secretary of the navy.

Beverly T. Galloway, of Washington, D. C., to be assistant secretary of Agriculture.

John E. Edgerton, of New York, to be purchasing agent of the postoffice department.

WONDERS OF WIRELESS.

Message Sent From Key West to Cairo, Egypt, 7,000 Miles.

Another new record for wireless transmissions and one which probably will stand for a long time, has been made by the sending of a clearly readable radiogram from the local station to the one at Cairo, Egypt, over 7,000 miles distant. Cairo stated that the Lloyds wirless operators in the Egyptian city frequently picked up messages from Key West, but were unable to reply to them because of the distance. The sending apparatus here is among the strongest in the world.

The scout cruiser Salem, which recenly crossed the ocean to Gibraltar to conduct wireless communication tests with the naval radio station at Arlington, Va., will sail for Hampton Roads from Gibraltar today and repeat the tests on the way across the Atlantic.

From incomplete reports received from the Salem, it is known that daylight communication from the station to the Salem was possible at a distance of 2,400 miles, while the Salem made her signals heard at the Arlington station at a distance of 1,300 miles. The night ranges were considerably larger.

While the Salem was at Gibraltar her wireless officers were given the use of the station of the British government for the purpose of receiving messages from the Arlington station.

DEATH PENALTY FOR PASTOR.

Rev. Marion Capps Convicted of Burning Three of His Children.

Guilty of burning to death three of his six motherless children, Rev. Marion Capps, a Methodist minister of Fort Smith, Ark., last night was sentenced to pay the death penalty by a jury in the circuit court. He received the verdict with the same marked indifference that has characterized his demeanor throughout the trial.

Three ballots were required before the verdict was reached. Capps was charged with tying his children to an oil-soaked bed. Two perished in the flames while a third died after escaping from the house. A daughter, Bertha, aged 15, and a son, Ellis, aged 14, swore that when they awoke they found themselves held fast in their bed, which was saturated with coal oil. They were forced to wait, they testified, until the flames burned the rope before they could escape.

The girl told the jury that when the flames awoke her she discovered her father leaving the bed room, which he locked, she asserted. The boy also swore that after he had escaped his father told him that if he did not return tnto the building to rescue the remaining dying children he would tie him hand and foot and throw him into the flames.

The testimony of the children was largely responsible for their father's conviction.

Suicide Menu.

Atlanta, Ga., March 13.—Here's a new and delightful way of suicide: Instead of taking carbolic acid, shooting yourself in the heart or dashing your brains out from the top of a tall skyscraper, just indulge regularly for a short time in the following menu for luncheon.

Sliced tomatoes with sugar.
Roast pork with apple sauce.
Ice cream for dessert.

Sounds like a pleasant way to die, doesn't it? It is the method recommended by a scientist here. He says lots of Atlantans are preparing to give themselves to the undertaker by just that method. The combination, he says, is sure to lead to an early and untimely grave, and death by that means, he says, is not nearly so pleasant as it sounds.

RENEWED HIS BOND.

Eugene E. Fisher, who was recently arrested and taken before United States Commissioner Foster in Fredericksburg on the charge of non-support of his family, in Washington, D. C., and who was released upon a bond of $1,000 for his appearance before R. W. P. Garnett, U. S. Commissioner, in this city, was brought before the latter this morning. His bond was renewed for sixty days until requisition papers shall have been made out in Washington and received by Governor Mann. The accused refused to appear in Washington where the alleged offense was committed. Fisher says he was a resident of Alexandria county.

ARSENAL IS FOUND IN LONDON STUDIO

Destructive Stuff and Tools Used by Suffragettes Unearthed.

STOCK CONFISCATED.

Miss Alice Hocken, Alleged Incendiary, Found by Policemen at the Place and Arrested.

London, March 13.—The "arsenal" of the Paskhurst militants suffragettes was discovered early today when the police raided a studio at 28 Campden Hill Gardens.

Large quantities of corrosive acid, phosphorous, and other destructive stuffs that the women used in the letter-box outrages were found, together with wire cutters and hammers, used in their telephone and telegraph attacks; flints for striking sparks and several false automobile identification plants were among the things found.

The den was found by accident. The police were searching for Miss Olive Hockin, wanted for setting fire to the Roehampton Golf Club pavilion recently. They were told that Miss Hockin lived in the studio, and when they called to arrest her, they found all the implements used in the suffragette warfare, with the exception of bombs.

Miss Hockin was arrested and locked up to await a hearing and the "arsenal" was confiscated.

NEARING COMPLETION.

Trestle Running Into City Gas Works Will Soon be Ready For Use.

The trestle over which coal will pass into the premises of the city gas works is practically completed, and in a short time the city will be enjoying a convenience which should have been provided many years ago. Engines will be run over the track trestle on Saturday.

The trestle extends south 700 feet from Montgomery street and crosses Oronoco street into the premises of the gas works to the coal bin.

Heretofore coal used at the works has reached Lee streets in cars and wheelbarrows had to be used in transporting it from the cars into the gas house property, a tedious and laborious process. When the trestle shall have been put in use the coal will be dumped from cars into the bin.

It is calculated that the city will save the cost incurred in three years. The city is to pay one-half the cost of construction and the Southern Railway the other half. It's approximate cost will be $6,200, but it is suggested that the work will be done at a less figure.

STEAMER BURNS, ANOTHER DAMAGED

Fire on Passenger Vessel and German Cruiser at Philadelphia.

RIVER FRONT SCARE.

Quick Action Prevents What Might Have Proven a Disastrous Conflagation at the Quaker City.

Philadelphia, March 13.—The Merchants and Miners Steamship Persian was almost completely destroyed, the German cruiser Bremen was badly scorched and a section of the Delaware river water-front threatened with destruction early today by flames which originated on the Persian Only quick action by two fireboats, several tugs and a dozen engine companies prevented a serious conflagration. The after-docks of the Persian were burned to the steel hulk and she has settled firmly in the mud.

STRIKERS ROUTED.

Fugitives Carry Away Wounded, While Deputies Round Prisoners.

Roebling, N. J., March 13.—Several striking section men are believed to have been wounded in a riot yesterday afternoon, when 60 strikers attacked a work train, drove off 30 strike-breakers and guards and held poasession until they in turn were driven out by Pennsylvania Railroad officers in a pitched battle in which at least 200 shots were exchanged. As the strikers retreated down the River road before the deputies' revolvers, several men were limping and others were helped along by their companions.

Disorder broke out again when passenger trains were stoned while passing a bridge where a crowd had congregated. Sheriff Jordan, who had just sworn in 37 deputies at Bordentown, was a passenger on one of the trains attacked and he sent a detail to arrest the gang. Ten men were captured, among them Lecarte Degrosse, who, it is alleged, had opened the battle by firing at Robert Bankey, of Camden, leader of the railroad officers. The bullet scraped the crown of Bankey's hat. Another prisoner was Somers Pittman, of Bordentown, who has a wife and five small children. The ten were taken to Burlington and later sent to the county jail by trolley. Rioting and assault were charged against nine and atempt to murder against Degrosse.

An armed camp for strike-breakers was established at the East Burlington freight yards last night, and all work trains and crews from the Trenton Division were taken there under heavy guards. A quarter of mile of extra siding was laid in a few hours to accommodate the extra trains, in which 300 men slept tonight, while armed pickets patroled the tracks and vicinity. Rumors that strikers had dynamite and would attempt to explode it under the cars caused much uneasiness among the men.

Division Supervisor F. J. Potter, in charge of the camp, said Burlington had been selected and would be the headquarters for the work trains until the strike is settled, because of the distance from towns in which most of the strikers live. Linemen are installing an electric light system to keep the entire camp brilliantly illuminated.

WIDOW AN ALEXANDRIAN.

Daughter of George W. Harrison Wife of Late Admiral Eaton

With striking absence of naval honors, the body of Rear-Admiral Joseph Giles Eaton, U. S. N., (retired), whose sudden death in his Norwell, Mass., home early last Saturday morning is being investigated, was brought to Boston yesterday and then taken to Lowell for burial. The widow and Miss Dorothy Ainsworth, her daughter by her first marriage, were the only mourners. Newspaper reporters and hack drivers were the pallbearers. Not even a flag was shown.

The widow and her mother, Mrs. George W. Harrison, both expressed the opinion that the Admiral had died a natural death.

The widow was the Admiral's second wife and was formerly the wife of D. H. Ainsworth, once a clerk in the United States Senate. Her father was George W. Harrison and the family home was at Alexandria. The family left this city about a third of a century ago, having previously occupied a residence which stood on the southeast corner of Prince and Royal streets. Mrs. Eaton's father subsequently lost his life by drowning. Mrs. Eaton is about 40. She said yesterday: "For two years I have been afraid that if anything happened to Joe they would blame me for it and now they probably will."

The inexplicable neglect of government attention to the passing of a man who was great enough to command a battleship in the nation's last war is causing comment. In the Spanish war the dead man was in command of the United States ship Resolute at Santiago Bay. It was the Resolute which signaled to Admiral Sampson the message that the Spanish war fleet was heading out of the land-docked harbor and was advancing to meet the United States vessels. The man who, commanded the Resolute on that great day was buried with no more honors or attention than would have been accorded the insignificant alien just landed on our shores.

Mrs. Harrison remained at the home in West Norwell. She said yesterday: "These rumors that my son_in_law was poisoned are terrible. We feel terribly distressed over his death. It is nonsense to say that the admiral was poisoned. His stomach, as people well know, was in bad shape.

"Last Wednesday he cooked his own dinner, as he was in the habit of doing at times. He had a pig killed. It weighed nine pounds and he cooked it himself with vegetables. At 2 o'clock he sat down and ate about two pounds of it. A few hours later he became sick. He seemed to be suffering at the time. Thursday he was taken sick and was attended by Mrs. Eaton and his step-daughter, Dorothy. He was nauseated that day and complained of feeling tired. He said his body ached. He continued sick Thursday night and Friday and complained of feeling cold. Mrs. Eaton gave him hot-water bottles for his feet and back. Both she and her daughter worked over him until late Friday night. Mrs. Eaton did not sleep in the room with the admiral that night. She slept with her daughter in a nearby room.

"About 2 o'clock Saturday morning I heard a sound of something falling and I called to my daughter, Mrs. Eaton, and to Dorothy. I said I was afraid something had happened to the admiral. They found that he had fallen out of bed. He seemed to be dazed. He did not seem to understand what had happened.

"They put him in bed again and he said, 'That's good, I feel better now. I feel quite comfortable.' Mrs. Eaton remained in the room with the admiral and she fell asleep. About two hours later, as dawn was breaking, I was awakened by voices in the hall, evidently those of Mrs. Eaton and Dorothy. I heard Dorothy say, 'He's gone.' Then I got up and found that he had died. My daughter told me that she fell asleep and knew nothing further until daybreak when she awoke and found he was dead. I think Dr. Frame did not realize how ill the admiral was when he treated him on Friday."

Prof. Whitney stated today that he may be able to report to district attorney barker at Brockton by noon or soon afterward

That Mrs. Eaton the admiral's widow, may be examined as to her sanity developed today when Mrs. George Harrison, her mother, said that she had previously had good grounds for believing her daughter insane.

"We have been expecting that she will be examined as to her mental condition as one outcome of the present situation," said Mrs. Harrison. "We are prepared for that."

Fort Washington Soldiers Last Night Smash Show Windows on King Street

Charged with breaking two show windows on King street, one the large plate glass window in the front of the Sanders and Stayman Co., building and the other, in front of the book store of R. I. Carne, two soldiers from Ft. Washington, Hamilton Sibbard and Michael Sullivan, faced Police Justice Caton this morning and were each sentenced to three months in jail or a fine of $50. The windows were broken last night after midnight and the men were the only persons on the street. In the police court this morning they acknowledged that they were drunk and did not know what they were doing. The windows were valued at $200 and were insured. Both of the men were quite young and had only been enlisted four months.

Justice Caton also heard the case of Rosa Ford and Isabel Spriggs charged with fighting, and during the trial it developed the Spriggs woman had tried to shoot the Ford woman with apistol. The fight occurred on last Saturday night at 306 North Fayette street. A fine of $5 was imposed on former and $10 on the latter.

William Katopsky, ashoemaker, charged with non-support who was arrested yesterday on a bench warrant, was turned over to the Baltimore authorities.

MISSING ACTRESS.

Bertha Smuckley Writes Note Saying She Was Taken Away By Man.

Danville, Va., March 13.—The police here are actively engaged in tracing a 17-year-old vaudeville actress named Bertha Smuckley, who appeared in a local moving picture show last week and who suddenly disappeared without giving any reason.

It was first thought the girl had merely eloped without telling her associates, but the police are now in possession of a penciled message, picked up along the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway track near Gilmore. The note, signed by the girl, reads as follows:

"I am being taken away by a strange man against my will. Will the finder give this to the police? Bertha Smuckley."

The name was written on the back of a local laundry ticket and was found by a trainman near Gilmore on Sunday afternoon last. The finder gave it to the Gilmore police, who got busy on the wires but failed to find the girl. The note was then sent to the local chief of police for investigation.

Little is known of the actress. She came here March 3 and appeared in her room regularly during the week, but Saturday, before the show began, she was missing and a search of her boarding house rooms showed that her few effects had gone.

FRUIT OUTLOOK GOOD.

Buds in Many Sections Present Unusually Healthy Appearance.

Winchester, Va., March 13.—Advices from fruit growers are to the effect that so far prospects are excellent for a good crop this year. In the apple belt in Frederick, Clarke, Jefferson, Berkeley, and Morgan counties the buds present an unusually healthy appearance for the season, the weather of last month not having forced the growth to a dangerous extent.

In the great mountain peach orchards of Hampshire, Morgan and Mineral counties the trees are loaded with tender buds, and they present a healthy appearance. With a short crop further south, as is now predicted, the local peach growers are likely to have another very profitable year, unless, however, the unexpected should happen in the form of killing frost in April.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Roanoke Man Grows Despondent When Wife is Taken to Hospital.

Roanoke, Va., March 13.—J. R. Plunkett, 30 years old, employed as a pipefitter at the Roanoke Gas Light Company, yesterday morning drank an ounce and a half of chloroform. He is in a critical condition in a room in a local hotel to which he was removed from the Norfolk and Western passenger station. Plunkett walked into a drug store and asked for chloroform sufficient to kill a dog. He was given an ounce and a half of the poison, and the clerk instructed him how it should be administered to the animal.

Later a porter from the station went to the store with the phial that had been sold to Plunkett, and said the latter had taken the drug and was in a serious condition in a retiring room on the tower floor of the station. The clerk went immediately to the place, and the would-be suicide was taken to the drug store where emetics and antidotes were administered. He soon rallied. He is a married man, and his wife, who is ill, was moved to a local hospital last night. It is understood that this caused despondency.

MISS WISSLER MAY WED.

Claude Allen's Sweetheart Leaves For Pulaski—Prsioner Preparing Statement.

Richmond, Va., March 13.—Although Miss Nellie Wissler left Richmond for Pulaski last night, after having twice visited her lover, Claude Allen at the State prison, it is understood that the young woman is to return before the day set for the electrocution of the mountain clansmen, so that her good-bye of yesterday was by no means final.

Before leaving Richmond Miss Wissler explained that she had said to Claude that, while she was perfectly willing to become his bride, even under the present circumstances, yet she would not feel that she had a right to do this before speaking with her father on the subject.

"Not that I am not of age," said the young daughter of the mountains, but I believe that so much difference would be due to my parent."

When asked if she apprehended any objection on the part of her father to her marriage with Claude she replied very emphatically in the negative. She said that her father had known Claude for many years and reposed implicit confidence in the innocence and integrity of the man.

It is a mooted question among those most interested in the final fate of the Carroll county prisoners whether Miss Wissler has not returned to her father's home to gain his consent to her marriage with her mountain lover before the clansman bids farewell to the world.

After the leave taking of Victor Allen and the departure of Miss Wissler, Claude set himself more earnestly to work than heretofore upon the preparation of his final death statement to Governor Mann, which document will also be delivered to the press. It is understood that this statement will be formulated with great care and that it will contain matter of great importance as bearing upon the tragedies at Hillsvile.

PUPPY DEVELOPS RABIES.

Farmer Bitten by Very Young Dog, Candidate for Pasteur Treatment.

Richmond, Va., March 13.—A remarkable instance of rabies in a six-weeks old puppy was revealed yesterday morning when L. Martin, twenty-four years old, a farmer of Ellison, Va., applied to Dr. Meade Ferguson, of the State Health Department, for Pasteur treatment. About three days ago Martin was playing with one member of a litter of very young dogs, when this particular pup, becoming suddenly vicious, sunk its little sharp teeth into the farmer's forefinger.

Aside from the pain of the bite, Mr. Martin thought nothing of the matter until forty-eight hours later when the pup with ugly disposition, sickened and died under suspicious circumstances. The farmer's fears were aroused and he prepared to take care of himself in the event it developed that the puppy was mad. The dog's head was sent to Washington for analysis, and a report of "unmistakable hydrophobia" was wired back.

WIFE FOILS MAD SLAYER.

But Club Descends on Sleeping Man Then Knife is Wielded.

Danville, Pa., March 13.—Awakened to see a masked man standing beside her husband with a heavy club raised and about to strike a death-dealing blow upon his head, Mrs. Wm. H. Potter, of Liberty township, jumped from the bed in time to seize the intruder's arm and partly ease the force of the blow. However, it rendered her husband unconscious.

Frustrated in his attempt to kil the man, the assailant, Elmer S. Zarr aged 19, and formerly employed by the Potter's then attempted to slash the unconscious man's throat with a butcher knife.

In the desperate struggle Mrs. Potter seized the knife by the blade, which Zarr drew through her clenched fist, inflicting a gash to the bone Then, probably fearing he would be identified, he fled.

The first person to reach the house after the attack, was young Zarr, and he was eager to go for a physician, and told him Potter was suffering from "nose bleed."

The conviction became strong that he himself was the guilty man when the physician learned the facts, and Mrs. Poter noticed something familiar in the masked man's figure, although disinclined to connect Zarr, because they had often befriended him.

Arrested at the Potter home today Zarr made a confession, declaring he was drunk. The condition of Mr. Potter is serious.

He was 65 years of age and leaves a widow and one son (Richard E. Griffith, Jr., of Winchester). Mr. Griffith was a son of the late Aaron H. Griffith, of Brookland this county. During President Harrison's administration he was postmaster here.

MR. LEADBEATER'S VOTE DISAPPOINTING.

We are sorry to note that almost the first position taken by Councilman John Leadbeater, recently elected by Council to fill a vacancy from the First ward, was one in opopsition to the wishes of the people of the ward which he represents as expressed at the polls last summer. At Tuesday night's meeting of council Mr. Leadbeater's vote was the only one cast in either the lower board or the board of aldermen against the appropriation to take the annexation case to a higher court. Even Mr. Brockett, who was elected to Council on an annexation platform but who repudiated his former position, fought against annexation and was even a witness for the country in his efforts to blacken the reputation af Alexandria, asked to be passed without having his votee recorded. Mr. Williams,who was also opposed to the annexation measure, voted for the appropriation and Mr. Leadbeater stood alone.

Many of the people living in the first ward, who were glad to have a man of Mr. Leadbeater's ability in council, will regret that he has taken a stand with which they cannot agree. A year ago, a similar action on the partof his brother, Edward S. Leadbeater, who was one of the trio who voted against the annexation ordinance, caused the voters of the First ward to retire him from council, although they recognized his conspicuous ability which was shown during his long years of service.

The first duty of members of council is to represent the community and not to give way to his own personal ideas. We know that this has not been the policy of some members of council but we had hoped that Mr. Leadbeater would not be numbered with members of this class.

HYDROPHOBIA AN INTERESTING STUDY.

According to Dr. Meade Ferguson, bacteriologist of the State Department of Health,, the death of Lee Shepherd makes the fourth fatal case from hydrophobia in Virginia during the past year.

These facts have naturaly caused some anxiety throughout Virginia, and many people are recommending drastic measures in order to minimize the danger from rabies. It is understood that a member of the Legislature from the southside will introduce a bill in the next house of delegates requiring the muzzling of all canines in the Comonmealth.

Opinion seems to be divided concerning the danger from dogs, many people alleging that there is no such malady as hydrophobia, and that deaths of human beings after having been bitten by dogs are due to excitement. They cite cases to show that people who have been bitten by dogs, alleged to have been suffering from rabies by those who have subsequently examined the heads of the brutes are stil living. Instances have occurred in our own city where perssons whose flesh had been torn by dogs believed to have been suffering from hydrophobia are in their normal condition today. Many years ago a little son of the late Anthony Armstrong was bitten by a dog which was immediately dispatched and its head sent to a bacetriologist in Washington, who announced after an examination that the animal was suerоing from rabies. No serious results followed, however.

Per contra, it is dierent to argue against facts witnessed by responsible people.

Allusion was made by the Gazette recently to the sad case of William England ,who was bitten by a puppy he was fondling and his subsequent death from hydrophobia. He was attacked by the dog in 1870 at his home near the tol lgate, Duke street extended. People are now living who witnessed his paroxysms and terrible death from the dread disease.

People who prefer to believe death is superinduced by imagination list hydrophobia with hypnotism, and call attention to the fact that limbs are at times amputated in hospitals after subjects have been mesmerized. They also appeal to the many stories concerning the utility of the alleged "mad stone," which was owned by a man in Fauquier county. It was said that the stone would adhere to the wound if the dog which inflicted it had been suering from rabies; otherwise it would fall off. In cases where it stuck greenish puss would be extracted from the wound.

Belief in efficacy of the mad stone shortly after civil was was as prevalent as superstition that blood from a black cat's tail was a panacea for the hives. The mad stone is seldom mentioned now.

LAWYERS TO TALK TAXATION.

So predominant has become the issue of tax reform that the Virginia State Bar Association, at its coming annual meeting, will make it the sole subject for discussion. No other matter save the usual business of the association will be considered in annual session at the Virginia Hot Springs, July 29,, 30 and 31.

Richard Evelyn Byrd, Speaker of the House of Delegates, has been selected to present the subject of tax reform in the only paper which will be read before the association He is to speak on the opening day in discussion of taxation in this state, and the remaining sessions are to be devoted to debate on the facts and arguments presented by him. With the exception of Mr. Byrd's paper, there will be no set address save the annual remarks of the president.

This is a distinct departure from procedure in former years. Usually three or more subjects are selected for discussion, and several papers are read. It is in appreciation of the vital importance of assessment and collection of taxes to all the people of the State, the Virginia Bar Association will devote its entire annual meeting to this subject. This is taken as an indication of the intense public interest in the matter of needed legislation.

Mr. Byrd has been selected as the principal speaker not only because of his experience as Speaker of the House for the last three terms, which position he now holds, but also because he had more intimate knowledge of the subject as a member of the State Tax Commission created by the Legislature of 1910, which reported without effect one year ago. Its exjert recommendations were disregarded by the Legislature. He will spend much time in preparation of a paper of such importance that it will comprise the tax situation as it is in Virginia today with the needs for reformation. He is fully alive both to the honor done him and the splendid opportunity thus afforded him.

Fierce Batle.

Washington, March 13.—A fierce battle which began at 5:30 o'clock this morning, is raging today between the 300 rurale police under Colonel Kosterlitzky and 1,000 rebels under Colonel Obregon at Nogales, Arizona, by only a narrow street, according to dispatches which reached the State Department at noon today

No details of the battle have been received, but the War Department today cautioned the contenders and General Bliss, commanding the United State stroops, to protect American lives. General Bliss was ordered on no account to interfere with the battle, except on direct order from the war department.

Oxford Wins.

London, March 13.—Oxford won the seventh annual "battle of the blues," the boat race between Oxford and Cambriidge universities today.

CANDIDATES.

The woods are full of candidates for office large and small,
It is my hope the government will find room for them all,
For how can Woody Wilson ever re-elected be?
For every man that he can't place will be an enemy
To his administration, and will work like sin to beat
A man who's so ungrateful for the presidential seat.

I was, myself a candidate and sought
a cabinet place,
Believing my abilities official life
would grace,
And when I found I wasn't mentioned in the press men's dope,
To be ambassador to foreign lands was my next hope.
And then it seemed as if the list of men the chief would call
To foreign service didn't even have my name at all.

So then I turned attention, as a sort of last resort,
To be the District Marshall or Collector of the Port,
Or Postmaster or fed'ral judge or other sort of place,
So I could live on Easy Street with smiles upon my face.
I thought that nothing else could lift
a man above the mob,
Like looking wise and drawing pay for some fat fed'ral job.

But, honest injun, when I started out on my campaign,
I saw competitors spring up like mushrooms after rain,
It seemed to me that every office-
hungry Democrat
Into the ring of politics had shied his derby-hat,
And so I sighed and figured out that sure as I was born,
I'd better turn my mind to laying bricks or plowing corn.

If the queen of the May got lost, would Ned Hunter?
If Mr. Weil is German, is Mr.
George S. French?
If Richard Evelyn is Bryd, is Charlie Swan?

We notice that Council held one of its old-fashioned talk-riots on Tuesday night over the city printing. It would be only fair compensation to pay a dollar a line to a newspaper for printing all that oratory in full.

They are having a merry fight over the ambassadorship to which Dr. Page and Col. Willard have neither one been appointed. Modesty forbids us mentioning any name as a compromise candidate, but we would certainly enjoy a few years' residence in a foreign capitol.

Now the Spring is settin' in,
Lord, it's hard to work,
Fo' the season makes you wish
Yo' daily task to shirk.

When the weather's cold, a man's Kin labor like a beaver,
But there's right smart 'o difference
When you've got the ole Spring-fever. .

Eleven Hurt in Fight.

Arlington, N. J., March 13.—Two hundred men and women on strike against the Arlington Company, manufacturers of celluloid, where 600 employes went out a month ago, yesterday afternoon attacked 40 special policemen on guard at the factory and a squad of uniformed police.

The rioters gathered about the factory, where strikebreakers are employed, and. refused to disperse. The police fired their revolvers in the air. but the strikers with clubs and stones advanced on them and there was a hand-to-hand struggle. Eleven of the strikers were beaten down with night sticks before the riot ended, and 12 men were arrested.

Mayor Louis M. Brock deputized Justice of the Peace Adolph Anann to read the riot act to the strikers, who were told that all of them found on the street in half an hour would be put in jail. This threat had a quieting effect.

Alienists yesterday examined the first "crank" of the Wilson admiqistration. The man gave his name as Dr. Charles A. Schwab, of Dallas, Texas. He is being detained in the Washington asylum, in which institution he was placed Tuesday when arrested by Secret Service men on his arrival in Washington. The man said he was on his way to the White house to be sworn in as President and he had in his possession a number of written messages purporting to have been sent to him by Chief Justice White, of the Supreme Court. It is believed that he wrote them himself.

A New Kind of Roofing
Asphalt Gravel That Will Last Ten Years—Can be Used Anywhere.
Cumberland, Md. — Among the many improvements at the new Y. M. C. building is the asphalt gravel roof (Security brand) that was put on under direction of Mr. Adam May.
A fairy tale is told about this roofing by Mr. A. M. Strickland, of Elkton, Md. About fifteen years ago he built the Elkton Foundry and covered the roof with Security Asphalt Gravel roofing and four years afterward the building and contents were consumed by fire. Nothing was left but the walls and roofing.
Being of an economical turn of mind he ordered the carpenters to cut down the roofing in strips, losing only the laps.
He used these strips of roofing on the new foundry building and it is in good condition today after ten years of active service.
It would be difficult to believe such a tale, because tin, iron and slate or any other composition roofing would have gone to smash or curled up and blown away in such a conflagration.
There is reason to believe that this true, because it stood the test in a similar fire in the B. & O. hay shed at Mt. Clare Station, Baltimore, some years ago.
This roofing can be purchased of

A WARNING.

To Whom it May Concern:

It having been called to our attention that there is an Order, the members and councils of which are endeavoring to leave the impression on prospective candidates, and the public that they are a branch or auxiliary of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, of Virginia, Inc., we feel that we should make a brief statement of the status of our Order.

On February 17, 1900, the General Assembly of Virginia granted our Order a charter to do business in this State. At the time there was doing business in Virginia the National Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics.

On the 29th day of June, 1901, our branch of the Order brought suit in the Chancery Court of the City of Richmond to prohibit the National branch from using our name, or any name of like import, and from using a seal with the name of Jr. U. A. M. on it, and from carrying out the objects for which we were organized.

On the 21st day of July, 1904, the Chancery Court decided that our Order was the only branch authorized to do business in Virginia, and in its decree the following language is used:

"And the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree that the said National Council of Junior Order United American Mechanics of the United States of North America, and the other defendants to the said bill * * * * * * * * be and they are hereby, jointly and severally, perpetually enjoined and restrained from continuing the use within the State of Virginia of the name of the State Council of Virginia, Junior Order United American Mechanics of the State of Virginia, or any other name of like import likely to taken for that of plaintiff; and from the use of the seal of said plaintiff within the State of Virginia; and from carrying out, within the State of Virginia, under the name of the plaintiff, or any name of like import, any of the objects for which the said National Council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics of the United States of North America, or the said voluntary Association organized on or about the 2nd of March, 1901, as aforesaid were organized; and from using within the State of Virginia the name of the said plaintiff or any other name of like import in the pursuit of the objects for which the said plaintiff was chartered * * * * * * * * * and that the said National Council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics of the United States of North America, and the said voluntary association organized on or about March 2nd, 1901, as aforesaid, and their agents and officers be, and they are hereby, perpetually enjoined and restrained from designating their officers within the State of Virginia by the appelations set forth in the bill used by the plaintiff for its officers or agents, and from continuing the use in the State of Virginia of said appellations."

The National branch of the Order felt itself aggrieved by the decree above quoted from, and the case was appealed to the Supreme Court of Virginia, and then to the highest court in the land—the Supreme Court of the United States, and was in both of these latter courts decided in favor of our branch of the Order.

The National Branch of the Order then applied to the State Corporation Commission for a charter and on the 29th day of December, 1906, the same was granted to it as the "Virginia Branch of the Junior Order United Americans"?

Our branch of the Order considering that this was violation of injunction granted by the Chancery Court, petitioned said court to summon the said officers of the National Branch before it to show cause why they should not be fined for contempt of court.

This the said Court did, and on the 8th day of May, 1907 entered its decree as follows:

"And the matter of the said rule having been fully argued by counsel, and maturely considered by the Court, the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that the respondents to said petition * * * and each of them have disregarded and disobeyed the decree of this court, entered on the 21st day of July, 1904, which has been heretofore affirmed by the decree of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia and by the Supreme Court of the United States. In the following respects, viz: In disobeying the requirements of the act of the General Assembly of Virginia, passed on February 17th, 1900 * * * * * * * and in disobeying so much of said decree as enjoined the carrying out within the State of Virginia under the name of the plaintiff, or any other name of like import, any of the objects for which the National Council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics of the United States of North America, or the said voluntary association, were organized; or in using in Virginia the name of the plaintiff, or any other name of like import, in the pursuit of the objects for which the said plaintiff was chartered * * * * * and in disobeying so much of said decree as prohibited the National Council and the said voluntary association, their agents and officers, from designating their officers in the State of Virginia by the appellations set forth in the plaintiff's bill for its officers and agents, and continuing the use in the State of Virginia of said appellations.

And the Court, desiring to compel obedience to said decree, doth adjudge, order and decree that that persons above named be, and they are, fined the sum of twenty-five dollars each, and the same shall be paid by them, respectively, to the clerk of this court within 35 days from this date, and in default of such payment, each of said persons shall stand committeed to the custody of the sheriff of this city to remain in jail until said sums be paid by them respectively."

This case was also appealed to the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, and the Supreme Court of the United States, but was affirmed by these Courts.

It will be seen from the above quotations from the court's decision that the officers aid members of any Order which has our name, or any name of like import, and which undertakes to carry out the objects or our Order, or which interferes with our Order in carrying out its objects, or which uses the seal of our Order, is in contempt of court.

It is not our desire to resort to the Courts, but we feel that it is an obligation which we owe to our members, to see that the injunction order of the Chancery Court of the City of Richmond is not violated.

The foregoing is published as a warning to the general public.

State Councilor.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

At a meeting of the Patriotic League and affiliated bodies in Havana last night, the president, Salvador Cizneros, known also as the Marquis Santa Lucia, proposed an agitation for the elimination of the Platt amendment from the Cuban constitution. Resolutions denouncing the amendment created frenzied applause, and all present pledged themselves to strive to "free Cuba from the foreign incubus." A session of congress was held yesterday afternoon, but no message was received from the president regarding the general amnesty bill. It was explained that the president was still awaiting a precise definitien of the American views from the Cuban minister at Washington, Senor Rivero.

Two men are dying in a Fort Worth, Texas, hospital as the result of a fight in the dark Tuesday night at Kennedale. C. W. Dunn, a rancher was making preparations to elope with C. J. Adams' wife. Adams also is a rancher. Mrs. Dunn accidentally learned of her husband's elopement scheme and telephoned to Adams at Forth Worth. Adams hurried home and met Dunn, accompanied by Albert Haas half a mile from town. The men began firing when only 10 feet apart. Adams using double barrel shot gun and Dunn a six shooter.

The old ivy-covered home of General Daniel E. Sickles in lower Fifth Avenue, New York, will shelter its aged occupant for five weeks longer. The property was to have been sold at aution yesterday to satisfy a mortgage held by the Bowery Saving Bank and amounting, with interest, to $125,000. At the last moment the bank officials relented, and the sale was postponed until April 16 at noon. Sympathy with the war veteran is said to have been the only reason for the bank's leniency. General Sickles expresses himself as confident that enough will ultimately be raised from the sale of his home to pay off the Bowery Bank mortage, a second mortgage held by his wife, and also his obligation to the State as a result of expenditures while chairman of the State Monument Commission.

ROASTS ALIVE IN CINDER.

One of Two Men Perishes as Furnace Engine Toppies.

Norristown, Pa., March 13.—Frank DeKalb was killed yesterday evening and Joseph Covoleszie was badly injured, when a dinky engine went over the dump at the furnace at Swedeland. DeKalb landed upon a bed of red hot cinders, and was roasted to death. Both of his legs and arms were burned off before the body could be rescued by other workmen.

Covoleszie managed to crawl out of the hot cinders after he had been painfully burned about the arms and legs.

The men were engaged in dumping the red-hot cinders when the engine went over the high bank, dropping 50 feet, and was destroyed.

Hamilton, Bermuda, March 12—Encouraged by continued spell of warm baseball weather, the Highlanders are developing into great shape, their victory over Jersey City yesterday having elated Owner Farrell. Today Frank Chase congratulated himself on the possession of five crack pitchers, three of whom, headed by Ford, will be his main stays in the contests next summer. The squad met the Jersey team again today.

The bargan offer here is unusual—distinctive.

Furniture made to sell at $20 has been "mercilessly cut to $9.98" so many times that such events are ordinary.

But this month we have placed before you a few of our better pieces marked down because they have been in stock all season.

Profit on such furniture is never high, and seldom are pieces like these sold without profit. Our policy requires cleaning the floor of goods we have held through one season. You could not distinguish them from new arrivals, except by the lowered price.

To women who manage their homes with real economy, this is an opportunity of real importance.

Tuberculosis Medicine Saved This Man's Life

Pneumonia is a serious disease, and often lays the foundation for chronic lung troubles—sometimes Tuberculosis results. After Pneumonia, or any serious or stubborn cold, it is wise to take Eckman's Alterative. Don't wait to find out whether the trouble is getting worse, but take Eckman's Alterative in time and avoid the dangers of disease. Read of the recovery in this case:

336 No. 41st St., Phila., Pa.

"Gentlemen: I am getting along very nicely and gaining strength all the time. I now weigh 154 pounds, a gain since September 16, 1907, of 28 pounds more than when I first started to take the Alterative. I wish I had known of it two years ago, as it would have saved me much misery and distress. I was suffering from a very serious abscessed lung, which followed a bad attack of pneumonia. My physician and a specialist declared my case hopeless. I cannot but be thankful to you and the Almighty God for the great blessing and change of health it has brought me."

(Sworn Affidavit) THOS. REILLY.

(Five years later, reports good health.)

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever; Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

WOMEN SEEK TO VOTE.

Women Will Bring Matter up at Methodist Conference in Staunton.

Staunton, Va., March 13.—Votes for women and a change of denominational name will be two important questions up before the Baltimore Conference of the Southern Methodist Church at Staunton, beginning March 26.

The suffrage proposition is similar to that which a number of denominations put into effect some years ago. Women of the church desire authority to vote in church elections and to have all the powers of male members. In other Methodist Churches women have nearly all the rights enjoyed by male members. A warm debate is expected as a foretaste of this was given in the official publication of the church.

The Baltimore Conference will vote on the question of asking for a referendum from the general conference. The referendum will then go to the conferences for action. Appeals for such a referendum have heretofore been defeated. Women who are active in the missionary societies and other church affairs are anxious for the ballot.

In California, the Methodist Episcopal Church leaders are opposed to the Southern Church dropping the word South.

PAYLOR PLEADS GUILTY.

May be Given Eighteen Months in Penitentiary.

Danville, Va., March 13.—In the Corporation Court yesterday morning the trial of William S. Paylor, Danville's former treasurer who left here July 17 last with $9,000 of state funds, was called.

Upon arraignment, Paylor pleaded guilty, and it is understood that he will be sentenced to eighteen months in the penitentiary.

Judge Peatross withheld his sentence in order that Paylor might be a qualified witness in the C. C. Snead case which was called immediately after Paylor's had been temporarily disposed of. Paylor is under $5,000 bond, with his brother-in-law, W. R. Purdum, and J. L. Taylor, his former deputy in the treasurer's office, as surety for his appearance in court March 18, when the judge will pronounce his sentence.

Paylor has been away nearly eight months. On December 5 he was arrested in Buenos Ayres on information which is reported to have been given out in this city. A $600 reward was offered for his arrest, and John R. Cook, clerk o fthe Corporation Court, says claim to it.

TWO MEN SHOT.

Percy Hansbrough And Guy Akers Are Taken to Jail After Night Battle.

Roanoke, Va., March 13.—Percy Hansbrough and Guy Akers are in jail suffering from gunshot wounds inflicted in a remarkable escapade Tuesday night about 10 o'clock.

In the evening they took possession of Dr. H. E. Jones' carriage in front of Dr. Jones' hospital and drove into the country.

Dr. Jones and Policeman Kefauver followed in an automobile. Five miles from town they caught up with the young men. As they attempted to stop the carriage, a shot came from its interior, fired it is believed by Hansbrough.

The horse ran away and Hansbrough, jumping out, escaped into the bushes.

Akers was finally caught lying in the carriage with a pistol wound on the side of his head caused, it is though, by Hansbrough's shot. Akers was brought to Roanoke and placed in jail.

Officer Kefauver, with two other policemen and a bloodhound, returned to the scene of the scuffle and resumed the hunt for Hansbrough.

The dog followed the trail to the railroad tracks and at that point Kefauver boarded a train and went to Starkey station, seven miles from Roanoke. He searched the train, but did not find his man, and finally determined to search the station.

As he entered the station room, Hansbrough, who occupied one of the seats used by waiting passengers, put his hand in his pocket as if to draw a weapon, and as he did so Kefauver fired.

Kefauver aimed at Hansbrough's right shoulder, trying to cripple him and prevent him from using a gun. As he shot, Hansbrough turned, and the ball from the rifle entered the young man's breast just below his collarbone and ranging under the muscles, came out at the point of the right shoulder, causing a severe, but not dangerous wound.

Hansbrough and Akers are reported to have been drinking and the effect of the liquor is assigned as the cause of their escapade.

TAKEN TO HENRICO JAIL.

Two Convicted Murderers Removed From Spottsylvania County.

Fredericksburg, Va., March 13.—Judge R. H. L. Chichester of the Circuit Court of Spottsylvania county, at the request of Commonwealth's Attorney T. Stokeley Coleman, has entered an order directing that Nelson V. Carter, white, convicted in that court of the murder of his wife and sentenced to be electrocuted, and F. L. Hargrove, colored, convicted of the murder of Mansfield Thornton and Melvina Thornton, his wife, and sentenced, be taken from the Spottsylvania jail to the Henrico County jail, for safekeeping. The jail at Spottsylvania is regarded as insecure for keeping for any considerable time, the two prisoners under the death sentence.

SEARCH FOR ELOPERS.

Vain Pursuit is Made For Man Who Ran Away With Another's Wife.

Bristol, Va., March 13.—Rev. Joseph Owens, who eloped from Washington county, Va., recently with the wife of Rev. James Blankenbeckler, leaving his own wife and five children behind, has not been located.

Just before his departure, he appeared in the Circuit Court at Abingdon, and succeeded in having the court name a board of trustees to have charge of the funds and affairs of the Baptist Church which he proposed to build.

Following his departure, Judge Hutton, has on motion of parties interested, caused the order for trustee to be revoked. There are a number of men in the community who contributed to the fund on which Owens and Mrs. Blankenbeckler rode away from the commnunity to some distant point, and these men would like to see Owens subjected to the law for his conduct, but it is said that as yet no effort has been made to locate the man.

Child Burns With Home.

Keller, Va., March 13.—In a fire which destroyed the home yesterday afternoon the 2-year-old daughter of James Baker,,, colored, perished. The family had a perilous time to escape, the father carrying the child to safety, but being driven back by the flames on his return for the other.

Was Not His Body.

Danville, Va., March 13.—A headless corpse was discoverd late Saturday night on the Southern Railway track near the Dry Bridge, and up to the present time has not been identified.

A trainman walking along the line discovered the body, which was still warm and it was generally supposed that the man was stealing a ride on a fast freight, which passed the discoverer of the body a short while previously. The authorities were notified and Coroner Coleman viewed the body, deeming an inquest unnecessary.

While features were unrecognizable a police officer maintained that the body was that of William Jarrett, but Jarrett proved the falsity of the report by viewing the body himself.

Chicago.—U. S. Marshal Hoy spent $13.92 to seize a motorboat that failed to comply with government regulations. At government auction the boat sold at $3.50.

Salves Can't Cure Eczema

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this:

Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT.

A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D.D.D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 50 cent bottle will start the cure and give you instant relief.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommendating this D.D.D. Prescription to a skin sufferer here and there, and we want you to try it now on our positive pay guarantee. D.D.D. Soap keeps the pores clean; ask us.
